

Bibliography No.1

Date	Periodical	No	Pages	The name of the article
1993.01	JPS YUSHU	526	02-05	Philately of Re-independent Baltic countries
1993.09	JPS YUSHU	534	18-19	New information about Lithuanian philately
1993.10	JPS YUSHU	535	15-17	Overprinted stamps of the ex-USSR republics
1994.08	JPS YUSHU	546	83	Q&A corner: Purpose of Russian overprinted stamp
1995.03	JPS YUSHU	553	83	Q&A corner: Registered mail of Transnistria (Pridnestrovian Moldavia Soviet Socialist republic)
1995.10	JPS YUSHU	560	83	Q&A corner: Stamps of Bosnia and Herzegovina
1996.12	JPS Doitsukitte bukaihou	108	02-08	Philatelic relation between Germany and Lithuania: Lithuanian stamps printed in Germany and Memel stamps
1997.03	JPS YUSHU	577	66-68	Be aware! Forgery overprinted stamps and postal used covers of Russian republics and Ukraine
1997.04	JPS YUSHU	578	85	Q&A corner: cover of United Nations Peacekeeping Force from Bosnia and Herzegovina
1997.05	JPS YUSHU	579	85	Q&A corner: genuine UNPF cover from Bosnia and Herzegovina
1997.07	JPS YUSHU	581	83	Q&A corner: Russian cover with a meter stamp of United Nations Peacekeeping Force
2000.12	JPS YUSHU	622	30-31	"Philatelic Count Down of 20 th centuries series" Collapse of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics
2012.01	The Philatelic Studies (JPS)	104	22-25	Postal History of the Re-independent Lithuania from 1989 to 1994
2015.02	JPS YUSHU	792	42	Old friend Dr. L. Veržbolasuskas opened Japanese Stamp exhibit in Vilnius, Lithuania.
2016.05	JPS YUSHU	807	02-07	The path through the Re-independence of Lithuania 1988-1994
2017.07	JPS YUSHU	821	27	Litas denominated postage stamps expired in Lithuania

1. JPS = Japan Philatelic Society Foundation. Members are about 30,000.
2. Monthly philatelic magazine "YUSHU" is published by JPS. (Japanese "YUSHU" means "Philately")
3. Doitsukitte bukaihou (Japanese) = The bulletin of JPS Germany Study Group